

Major Andrew Flook CD

Andrew Flook is Milwaukee Tools Canada's regional field sales manager and has been an active member of the Board since 2010.

Engaged and dedicated, Andrew has been integral to various committees within The Society, including Membership, Events, Dinner, Finance, Communications, and Culture and Heritage. His commitment and leadership qualities were further recognized during his tenure, and as the Past President of The St. Andrew's Society of Winnipeg.

In his spare time, Andrew demonstrates a sincere passion for community involvement. He generously volunteers his time and expertise with organizations such as the Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Winnipeg Advisory Board, where he serves as Vice Chair. His continued dedication is evident through his ongoing volunteer work with the 78th Fraser Highlanders, where he has previously served as the president and is an executive member. Furthermore, his involvement in the Canadian Armed Forces, particularly in supporting the Canadian Cadet Program in Manitoba, showcases his deep commitment to serving the community.
