

Lt. Dougie G. McLeod

Dougie was born in Broxburn, Mid-Lothian, Scotland, in 1970 and raised in Glasgow until my family moved to South Africa between 1975 & 1977, he moved back to Glasgow and stayed there until he left school and joined the Junior Leaders with the Royal Army Ordinance Corp at 17, after completion, he left and moved to London. From 1988. Dougie lived in London and, in 1992, met Christiane. We lived and worked there until 1997 when, after they married, they moved to Winnipeg, Chris' hometown. He's a mad football fan, Glasgow Rangers and Liverpool. He says he plays football and golf badly in his spare time! Dougie has been a Reserve officer with the Cadet Instructor Cadre since 2016, teaching cadets at the 407 RCACC Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders and a 20-year employee with the Manitoba Government General Employees Union. His family is cat parents and cat foster parents and volunteers with Meals on Wheels, Winnipeg. He has been a member of SASOW since 2015.
