

Colin Harris

A native of Winnipeg, Colin Harris has been a member of SASOW since 2011. The grandson of Scottish immigrants Thomas and Agnes Nicol Morrison, he is most associated, within the Scottish community, with Winnipeg's Robert Burns Club.

Colin served as President of the Winnipeg Robert Burn's Club from 2001-2005, and Secretary (now Recording Secretary) since 2009. He is also active with the Pavilion of Scotland. He served as Adult Male Ambassador in 2011 and as VIP and Group Tour Coordinator. He has also served on the Board of the Robert Burns Association of North America, including as President, and continues as Editor of the RBANA Tattler newsletter; and the Scottish Heritage Council of Manitoba.

Colin retired after a dozen years with Canadian Tire. He has enjoyed numerous trips to Scotland (and England) over the last 20 years.
